MATCH 4: Aggregate of matches 1,2 and 3.

Note, the relays will be considered complete when all shooters have fired 20 shots per record, even if time remains.

AWARDS: There must be 5 or more entries in a shooter classification for an award. If there are not enough entries for class awards, an award will only be given out to the match winner. Competitors may be combined with the next higher class when there are less than 5 competitors per class. If there are fewer than 5 High-Masters entered, they will fire for overall awards only. The Master class will not be combined with the High-Master class.

NRA REGIONAL AWARDS SCHEDULE: In Each Category High Power: (Any Rifle/Any Sight, Service, or Palma) F-TR and F-Open:

Winner: NRA Regional Gold Medallion (only with a minimum of 5 shooters per category).

2nd Place: NRA Regional Silver Medallion (only with a minimum of 10 shooters per category).

3rd Place: NRA Regional Bronze Medallion (only with a minimum of 15 shooters per category).

Class Medals: NRA Regional Class Medals (with a minimum of 5 shooters per class).

NRA CAMP ATTERBURY CREDIT CERTIFICATE AWARDS: The NRA will award each Long Range Regional sponsor Camp Atterbury, IN Entry Fee Credit Certificates to supplement the current medallions. Each Credit Certificate is good for 50% off the entry fee for the NRA Camp Atterbury Long Range Championship. The Camp Atterbury entry fee Credit Certificates will be awarded according to the following guidelines: A Credit Certificate will be given to the class winner in the expert, sharpshooter and the marksmen classes provided there are 10 or more competitors in each class. Classes may be combined in order to achieve the 10 competitor minimums. Supported shooters are not eligible for Credit Certificates. Competitors can only win one Credit Certificate per event per year. These certificates are numbered and a list of the Credit Certificates will be given to the NRA Entry Office at Camp Atterbury to verify your award and remittance. A Credit Certificate won at a Long Range Regional can only be used for entry in the Long Range phase. If a competitor wins a Credit Certificate in more than one Long Range Regional per year, only one Credit Certificate will be honored for that individual at the Camp Atterbury Long Range phase. Credit Certificates will be passed down within classes if won by an ineligible person. Credit Certificates earned will expire two years after the date of issuing the award.

To receive a Certificate, the Match Director must fill out and submit a Camp Atterbury Certificate Reporting Form to the NRA High Power Rifle Department along with the reporting of the results of this Regional. Upon the NRA receiving the Reporting Form, a numbered certificate will then be issued by mail directly to the competitor.

TOURNAMENT SPONSOR AWARDS: Tournament Sponsor cash awards will be given to each Match Winner and to the high individuals in each division Category/Class award group in accordance with a schedule. Award groups must contain a minimum of 5 competitors or they will be combined with the next appropriate award group per policy. Second, third, fourth place, etc. awards are based on one award for each five (5) competitors. If there are fewer than 5 High-Masters entered, they will fire for overall awards only. The Master class will not be combined with the High-Master class. If there are not enough entries for class awards, awards will only be given out to the overall top three shooters per match. Neither F-class category will be combined with any other category.

The Match Results Bulletin will be posted at <http://www.usrpa.org/Highpower/> and will not be mailed out unless requested.

MODIFICATIONS: The Match Director reserves the right to make modifications while staying within the NRA rules for this match program.
