The weather was a mixture of rain and snow. However, the match firing line was in the covered pavilion. The temperature ranged from freezing to 45 degrees. There was very little wind.

The range line officer for this event was Will Smith. Gayleen Smith and Eric Smith helped with the both statistics and of the target refacing and Eric Smith helped with the coaching. Terry Johnston was in charge of the publicity and organizing this event.

Many thanks go to the Cache Valley Hunter Education Center for allowing us to use the pavilion for this event

The awards schedule and score cutoff for this event were established by the Civilian Marksmanship Program.
